

KEYSTONE QUILTERS

Prospective member information

“Membership in Keystone Quilters shall be by attendance and payment of appropriate dues. The number of members will be determined by the size of our meeting place. Members shall be genuinely interested in the development and preservation of the art. Members are required to pay dues in a timely manner, attend four meetings per year, and provide the number of service hours during the quilt show according to the guild policy”

-Keystone Quilters By-laws. Revised 6/05

Currently dues are $40.00 (Cash or Check) for new members and $35 (cash or check) for returning members if paid before July 1st. Dues for returning members paid after July 1st is $40 (cash or check). Credit cards accepted at the May guild meeting and June dinner meeting. There is a 4% fee added for processing. Therefore, for new members using a credit card the dues are $41.60.

If a member is delinquent in paying dues, and does not provide the required number of service hours, they will be removed from membership.

Six service hours during the week of the quilt show are required of each member. Members are also encouraged to serve on guild and show committees, participate in raffle ticket sales and community service projects.

GUESTS are welcome at all guild meetings and are required to register pertinent information in the Guest book. Guest fees are determined by the program committee. Current guest fees are $10.00. All non members are required to pay the guest fee. There is no guest fee for June dinner/reorganization meeting. (See a board member for June dinner meeting details.) Programs and fees are made public prior to each meeting. A schedule of yearly events is available.
